Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What were you doing at this time yesterday?
- What are you doing at this time tomorrow?

Can Do Statements

- I can say what I'm doing right now or in the future.
- I can say what I was doing when something else happened.
- I can compare two things.

Let's Explore!

Sally e-mails Vanessa. What did she see in Jerusalem?

* "Jerusalem" has many kinds of religious buildings including churches, mosques and synagogues.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Vanessa! While I was walking through the streets of Jerusalem, I saw a gorgeous, rainbow-colored, stained glass window. It was bigger and brighter than others around. I was looking at it when I realized the two people in the image looked like you and Marco. I read it was Saint Marco and his love! It was the strangest thing!

Vanessa: Sally! When I read your email, I was hanging out with Marco! I was shocked to hear about the window! Marco is still the nicest guy. We are spending a lot of time together. In fact, I'm getting ready right now to go out for dinner. He's taking me to this romantic, little, Italian cafe. I think he has something up his sleeve ... he can be very mysterious. I think I'm falling for him ...

Let's Practice!

Tell me what happened.

Instructions: Choose the correct answer.

1. What sentence talks about a past action that interrupted another action?
 - ☐ I was hanging out with Marco when I read your e-mail.
 - ☐ I was reading our email and hanging out with Marco.
 - ☐ I hung out with Marco while I was reading your e-mail.
2. What sentence talks about a past action that interrupted another action?
 - ☐ While I walked through the street, I saw a gorgeous stained glass window.
 - ☐ While I was walking through the streets, I saw a gorgeous stained glass window.
 - ☐ I saw a window on the streets.
3. What sentence talks about a past action that interrupted another action?
 - ☐ I looked at the picture when I was realizing the two people looked like you and Marco.
 - ☐ I was looking at the picture when I realized that the two people looked like you and Marco.
 - ☐ I was realizing that the two people looked like you and I looked at the picture.

Let's Practice!

Bigger, brighter, better!

Instructions: Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is one answer per question.

	Comparative	Superlative
It was bigger and brighter than others around.
It was the strangest thing!

- rainbow (noun): different colors in the sky caused by light going through water e.g. A rainbow appeared in the sky.

Learning Points

The Past Continuous Tense

You use the Past Continuous tense to talk about something that was happening at a particular time in the past.

This is how you form the Past Continuous tense:

subject + was/were + verb-ing

I was cooking.

It was raining.

You often use the Past Continuous tense together with the Simple Past tense.

The Past Continuous talks about a longer 'background' action.

The Simple Past talks about a shorter event that happened in the middle of, or interrupted, the longer event.

You use the words when and while.

Look at the timeline:

Examples:

- While I was walking in Jerusalem, I saw a beautiful window!
- When I read your email, I was hanging out with Marco.

Learning Points

Comparative and Superlative Adjectives

You use a comparative to compare somebody or something to one other person or thing. You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the comparative and superlative:

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative	Form
tall	taller (than)	the tallest	Most adjectives: +-er, +-est
late	later (than)	the latest	Adjectives ending in -e: +-r, +-st
happy	happier (than)	the happiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: +-ier, +iest
attractive	more attractive (than)	the most attractive	3+-syllable adjectives: more + adjective + than or the most + adjective
good bad	better (than) worse (than)	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

- You use than after comparatives.
- You add the in front of the superlative form to describe people, places and things.

Examples:

- The window was bigger and brighter than others around.
- It was the strangest thing!
