Let's Start!

What are they like? Keep me updated!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What qualities do you think are important in a teacher? A doctor? A girlfriend/boyfriend?
- Why are these characteristics important in your opinion?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk or report about actions, events or people.
- I can agree and disagree tactfully.
- I can describe people's personality.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally exchange e-mails. Who is Marco?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa:

Hey, Sally!

What's up? Remember last week when I told you work was busy? Well, it's more exciting now! The new sous chef is gorgeous! His name is Marco. He's from Australia ... his accent makes me melt. He is the most attractive guy in the city! LOL.

I met him a few days ago and we hit it off right away. He is super nice, talkative, outgoing, funny and a total gentleman. We talked on our breaks at work. I can't wait to see him tomorrow!

Vanessa

Sally:

Vanessa!

Wow! Marco sounds amazing! I'm not sure how I feel about him being talkative, but he sounds like the best! Hehe. I can't wait to hear more. Keep me updated, please!

Sal

Let's Practice!

What happened at work? Tell me everything!

Instructions: Select all the incorrect words in the paragraph.

Remember last week I tell you that work was busy? I meet a new guy a few days ago. We hit it off right away. Yesterday he give me his number. I called him last night. We talk on our break at work earlier today. I can't wait to see him tomorrow.

Let's Practice!

Do you agree?

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. I'm not shore how I feel about him being talkative, but he sounds like the best.
2. I couldn't a greed with you more.
3. I do know about that ... I think he's too talkative.
4. I see what you're say, but I like quiet people.
5. You're absolute right.

Learning Points

Talking About Past Events

You use the Simple Past tense to talk or report about past events.

There are regular and irregular verbs.

To make regular verbs past, you add -ed or -d to the end of the word.
For example: We talked on our breaks at work.

To make irregular verbs past, you need to change the word.
For example: I met him a few days ago. (meet ---- met)

Regular Verb	Past Tense	Irregular Verb	Past Tense
walk	walked	go	went
talk	talked	eat	ate
look	looked	meet	met
watch	watched	see	saw

Learning Points

Superlatives

You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the superlative:

Adjective	Superlative	Form
tall old	tallest oldest	Most adjectives: + -est
late nice	latest nicest	Adjectives ending in -e: +-st
happy lucky	happiest luckiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: +iest
attractive intelligent beautiful	most attractive most intelligent most beautiful	3+-syllable adjectives: most + adjective
good bad	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

- You add the in front of the superlative form to describe people, places and things.

Examples:

- He is the most attractive man in the city.
- I am the luckiest woman.
- He is the cutest boy in the world.
