Let's Start!

Are you free sometime this weekend?

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- What are you doing this weekend?
- What are you doing after your English class?
- Do you have plans for your next vacations?

Can Do Statements

- I can say what I'm doing right now or in the future.
- I can ask if / when people are free.
- I can talk about free time activities.

Let's Explore!

Marco sends Vanessa a text. What does he write?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Marco: Hey, Vanessa. It's Marco. I'm just thinking about you. I'm wondering if you want to go out sometime? I'm going hiking this weekend. Are you interested? I would love to take you to my favorite picnic spot. Let me know.
- Vanessa: Marco! Nice to hear from you! Yes, I would love to go hiking with you. I love having picnics, too. Sounds great. Where and when?
- Marco: How does Saturday sound? I'm checking the weather now and it looks like it's sunny all weekend. Are you free Saturday?
- Vanessa: Yes, Saturday's good. I usually do the gardening on Saturdays, but I can do that on Sunday. What should I bring?
- Marco: Nothing! Just remember to wear your hiking boots. I'll bring everything else. I'll pick you up at 11:30.
- Vanessa: See you then!

Let's Practice!

Are they talking about now or the future?

Instructions: Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is one answer per question.

Learning Points

The Present Continuous Tense

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- an action happening at the time of speaking or writing
- an action happening in the near future, when the time and place are decided
- To make a difference between actions happening now and future actions, time expressions are essential.

Examples:

- I'm just thinking about you. (now)
- I'm wondering if you want to go out. (now)
- I'm going hiking this weekend. (future)

Asking If or When People Are Free

When you want to spend time with someone, you ask them if or when they are free.

You use these phrases to ask people if or when they are free:

I'm wondering if ...

Are you free on ... ?

Are you off ... ?

How does (day) sound?

When are you free to ... ?

What day are you free on?

Examples:

- I'm wondering if you want to go out sometime?
- Are you free on Saturday?
- Are you off tomorrow night?
- How does Saturday sound?
- When are you free to hang out?
