Learning Points

The Past Continuous Tense

You use the Past Continuous tense to talk about something that was happening at a particular time in the past.

You often use the Past Continuous tense together with the Simple Past tense. The Past Continuous talks about a longer 'background' action. The Simple Past talks about a shorter event that happened in the middle of, or interrupted, the longer event.

You use the words when and while before the longer action.

Examples:

- While we were hiking, I was able to forget about work.
- When I was talking on the phone, the doorbell rang.
