Let's Start!

She was lanky and tattooed.

Learning Outcome

Describe characteristics of different people and their jobs.

Ask your partner:

- Describe the strangest person you saw this week.
- What did they look like?

Can Do Statements

- I can describe people's appearance and personality.
- I can describe people with words.
- I can react or comment on a story.

Let's Explore!

Sally tells Vanessa about a strange woman she met. What did she look like?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Sally! Good to see you!
Sally: Hey, V! You look happy! How are things with Marco?
Vanessa: Good. We're taking it slow, you know. There is definitely something between us.
Sally: Well, at least you met someone interesting! It seems like everyone I meet is really strange!
Vanessa: What? What do you mean?
Sally: Well, not everyone ... just some people. I met this woman yesterday at the grocery store. She was lanky, tattooed and unkept - kind of like Amy Winehouse.
Vanessa: Amy Winehouse was cool!
Sally: Yeah, but this lady had the strangest outfit on.
Vanessa: Oh?
Sally: Yeah, and she was really rude and acting wild. She pushed her way to the front of the line!
Vanessa: I can't believe that!
Sally: I think she lives nearby, so I'm sure I'll see her again.
Vanessa: Good luck with that!

Let's Practice!

The best day ever! We're taking it slow.

Instructions: Select all the superlatives.

Dear Diary,

I met the most wonderful man yesterday. His name is Adam. He is the cutest guy in the world! He has the biggest, greenest, brightest eyes. He is the sweetest man - he always holds the door for me. I can't wait to see him tomorrow. This night will be the longest night!

Dreaming of him,
Anna

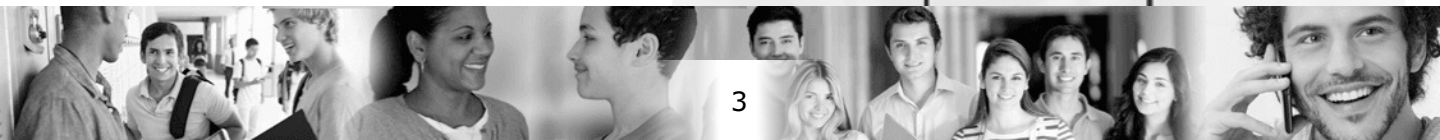

Let's Practice!

It's the strangest story!

Learning Points

Superlative Adjectives

You use a superlative to compare somebody or something to the whole group that he, she or it belongs to.

Look at the chart for information on how to form the superlative:

Adjective	Superlative	Form
tall old	tallest oldest	Most adjectives: + -est
late nice	latest nicest	Adjectives ending in -e: + -st
happy lucky	happiest luckiest	2-syllable adjectives ending in -y: + iest
attractive intelligent beautiful	most attractive most intelligent most beautiful	3+-syllable adjectives: most + adjective
good bad	the best the worst	Irregular comparisons

You add the in front of the superlative form to describe people, places and things.

Examples:

- He is the most attractive man in the city.
- I am the luckiest woman.
- He is the cutest boy in the world.
